Market Report: December 19

We had good sets of fats in town for our Thursday, December 19th auction, gathering a steady market from last week, sending the top fats out at 193.00. We followed with a large run of weigh cows and bulls, finding that the market may have taken a step in the right direction, calling the cows 4 to 5 higher. We finished the afternoon with a short run of feeders and some great sets of fed cows and hfrs. Our next pre-conditioned sale is on Monday, December 30th with 2000 head of calves and yearlings on the list. We have some excellent consignments for this auction and buyer demand remains extremely high. If you have some cattle that you would like us to look at, or would like to discuss our upcoming special auctions, please give us a call and one of our team would be happy to stop by.
